

Solid Semecs B.V. (Semecs) is one of Europe's leading Electronic Manufacturing Services (EMS) companies, with more than 25 years of experience in developing and manufacturing complex electronics solutions. In 2021, Semecs joined the German SERO EMS Group providing additional production capacity and a strengthened market position through scale and multi-site manufacturing capabilities for both companies.

Semecs with a factory in Vrábľe, Slovakia and Sales offices in Germany and Denmark specializes in mid-volume with a larger mix of products for the Industrial and Medical sectors. SERO in Rohrbach specializes in high-volume, highly automated processes for the Automotive sector in particular. In addition, US-based Synchron belongs to the SERO EMS Group since the beginning of 2022.
